Major step for minors

ADMIRING family and friends of students completing music studies Maranatha Christian School were treated to a live concert as part of the students' practical assessment.

Certificate 1 and 2 Music in Industry students from years 9 to 12 took to the stage last week.

They organised the sound stage and lighting, and raised money for charity by collecting gold-coin donations.

The students' studies included a variety of subjects, such as occupational health and safety in music, studio recording and practical performance skills.
